Greetings!

Congratulations on becoming a candidate in the current election cycle! Along with the excitement of running for an office, your candidacy also brings added responsibilities. These responsibilities are found in Kentucky Revised Statutes Chapter 121 and Kentucky Administrative Regulations Title 32. The campaign may access a copy of these statutes and administrative regulations on the Registry's website, www.kref.ky.gov.

Our website, found at www.kref.ky.gov, is now the primary source of campaign information for candidates and campaign committees. Located on the website under the "Forms and Brochures" subheading is a printable PDF version of the Candidate Guide to Campaign Finance (KREF 016). Many helpful sources of information are available on the Registry's website. We encourage you to utilize our agency's website as a valuable campaign resource.

Whether you are a seasoned veteran or are seeking office for the first time, please carefully study the Candidate Guide to Campaign Finance (KREF 016) found on the website.

If you have specific questions, please contact our knowledgeable Registry staff at (502) 573-2226, as they are eager to assist you at any time. We look forward to working with you!

Sincerely,
