NOTE: Each fundraising activity or event must be listed separately. This schedule must be filed with the Election Finance Statement covering the period in which the fundraising activity or event took place, and is for informational purposes only. All contributions received in connection with the activity or event must be disclosed on the appropriate Receipts schedule and included in totals reported on the Summary Page. Contributing organizations must account for costs incurred in connection with the fundraising activity or event either as Schedule 2A expenditure or an in-kind contribution on the appropriate Receipts Schedule. PAC's must disclose the total cost of an event on the Schedule and maintain administrative records of all costs incurred in connection with a fundraising activity or event in the event of a complaint or audit. The costs of fundraising activities and events are considered administrative costs of a PAC. As such, the PAC's sponsoring organization may cover or seek sponsors to cover the cost of the activity or events. Sponsors of a PAC event are not considered contributors to the PAC.
